

DAISY

Daisy discovers electronic music at a rave party in the south of France in the nineties. She learns how to mix and spins live for the first time in 1998 at a rave party in Paris, as YSIAD.

On top of her DJ-ing activities, in order to fulfil the need to share her passion with a wider set of people, she creates, along with several friends, the « Insomniacs » association in 1998. Insomniacs rave parties were organized from 1999 to 2004.

In 2001 she goes into partnership with A. Kahn and composes her first record as MANDRAGORE. Eleven vinyls have been produced since 2002 on labels such as : Industrial Strength (US), The Third Movement (NL), EBE Company (DE), Audiogenic (FR), Otaku (FR), B.E.A.S.T. (FR), Gazole (FR)... as well as four mix Cds, released on UWe (FR), The Third Movement (NL) et Epileptik (FR). In 2008 she chose a new stage name : MUTINE in order to differentiate her soft techno sets from the harder ones. MUTINE plays soft sets while MANDRAGORE plays industrial and hardcore sets.

In 2005 Daisy joins officially the Epileptik label. Several promoters ask her to become a resident DJ: the belgian organization named Techmaticore and the parisian Paramaniac parties.

Daisy has played in 17 countries and she participated at almost all big european events.

Musical styles:

Techno, Hard Techno and Industrial Hardcore

Her performance is a joy to look at and listen to, due to her enthusiastic appearance and her special touch which combines a dance floor spirit with a dark atmosphere, huge kicks and groovy hi-hats, precise mixing with lively cuts and speeds ranging from 125 (Techno) to 185 (Hardcore).
